Make Your Own Atlatl

Grades 7 – Adult

Jun 17

8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

$25 (includes all materials)

Have you ever wondered how Stone Age hunters lived off the land? Do you want to get a better sense of what that would have been like? Or, maybe you like survival shows and enjoy seeing primitive skills put to the test. Either way, this atlatl course is right up your alley. Whether you are a history nut or a woods bum in training, this class has something to offer for you. This highly hands-on and engaging lesson covers Stone Age history in a fun and interactive way. We start by putting this incredibly important time period into perspective in a way that is easy to understand. With your historical knowledge in place, you begin learning all about our oldest legitimate projectile; the atlatl. After learning about its parts, history, and the science behind how it works, you are ready to create your very own functional atlatl using your own two hands. By the end of the morning you will no doubt be having success with your primitive weapon and learning the skills of our ancestors. With a little luck, you may get the feeling you are walking in the moccasin tracks of the past, if only for a few brief steps. Come and join us for this one-of-a-kind historical class!
