girls who code

Wayland Public Library is launching a branch of the National Girls Who Code Club

Girls will learn basic and more advanced coding to create graphics, videogames, and websites

Club will meet Tuesdays, 4 - 6 p.m.

October 17—May 29

For Girls in Grades 6 – 12

Register from the library's online calendar.

The mission of the GwC is to bridge the gender gap in tech fields.