Oct 4 – 11: Engaging the World Prayer Requests

George & Martha Mixon (Serge/Kenya): Please pray for the people of Kenya as the presidential election runoff takes place on October 26. Pray for wisdom as we choose among many great options for training church leaders in Bible storying in the coming months. Opportunities are springing up at the coast, among Maasai, in central province, in eastern province, in Nakuru and Nairobi, even in Tanzania. In November George and a couple of their trainers hope to go to the vast Kakuma refugee camp up on the border of Kenya and South Sudan. We are exploring a year-long training there for the scores of pastors of small churches in the camp of about 200,000 displaced people from South Sudan, Somalia, and other parts of Africa. Finally, pray for our Serge teams in Kenya. Martha and George truly need your prayers as they walk through many challenges with leaders of all the teams.

Paul & Missy Robelot (TEAM/France): Please pray for wisdom as they balance new ministry responsibilities. Pray that the Lord would equip and use them during member care facilitator training coming up later this month in Poland. Lastly, praise God for local church members being more and more involved in the church and with outreach events.

Peter & Diane Bakelaar (MTW/Japan): Pray for God to use the Unfolding exhibition to bring about networking and building relationships among artists in Nagoya. This special art ministry outreach event will take place October 11-15 in Japan. Pray that God would sustain the Bakelaars with stamina & strength as they prepare and run this outreach. Finally, pray that the Japanese would be moved to understand the importance of openness and community and for this to lead to further discussions concerning life and Christ and spirituality.

Pat Butler (GEM/OM Arts Intl): Praise God for a safe evacuation and a safe return to her home in Florida. Pray for her community as it recovers from the hurricane and that God would direct her steps and conversations with neighbors. Pray for those in Florida, the Caribbean, and Puerto Rico, for both the external work of recovery as well as the inner healing from trauma and stress.

Tohru & Claire Inoue (SIM/Africa): Praise God for the calling up and sending out of a new missionary from a tribe that has been hostile to the gospel. This refugee turned missionary fled conflict and ended up in a South Sudanese refugee camp. Pray for him as he is in Ethiopia reaching out to his own people who have resettled there. May God use him and others who labor in the refugee camps to bring hope and light and truth. Lastly pray for Tohru as he finishes up time at a men's conference in Switzerland and returns to Claire and their children. Pray for their family to be knit closer together in Christ.
