June 13-19: Engaging the World Prayer Requests

Paul and Liz Meiners (Mission to the World/Europe): June will be a busy month for the Meiners as Paul travels to Spain and Scotland in his role of mentoring and caring for MTW workers. Liz asks for prayer as she teaches English to immigrant women, especially for Emi who is a new believer with many questions and a real eagerness to learn.

Rodney and Jana Davila (Mission to the World/San Jose, Costa Rica): They praise God for the provision of a new (used) car that they have been in prayer for for quite a while. Please pray for the three summer interns and four short-term teams that will be joining them this summer. Three teams will work in construction and the other one will be working with the youth camp. Pray especially for the good health of the visitors and their sensitivity to the culture and needs of the Costa Ricans they will meet.

Charlotte Hendricks (OM/France): Charlotte asks for prayer for the summer outreaches in the northwest and center of France that she is busy planning. She will lead a team in the cantal region this summer. She also asks for prayer for a mentorship program for interns that she is developing. Ellie, from Indiana, will be with her this summer as her first intern. Charlotte is in the US now for a brief time and will be at church this Sunday, June 17, so look for her to say hello!
