Dec. 6-12: Engaging the World Prayer Requests

- Stephen & Charity Jones (Serge/England): Pray for them to know the nearness of our Lord during this holiday season. Pray for their marriage to be gospel driven and grace filled. Pray for a newly befriended Hindu family to come to holiday events that the Jones' are hosting. Pray for Kairos Community Counseling to be given non-profit status by the London officials and pray for a new couple joining Charity at this center as the need is so great for more counselors. Lastly, praise God for the 7 apprentices being trained currently, 2 locally recruited, and for the 3 recent graduates who are seeking to return long-term to London.
- Kay Burklin (MTW/European Refugee Liaison): Pray for Kay as she serves refugees and connects the local church to this crisis with the hope of the gospel. Pray for more faithful supporters for her ministry. God is moving people from places with little access to the gospel to where they can now hear. Recently Kay met a woman from an area in Syria with no known Christian presence and now she is cared for by believers in the Middle East. Pray God would open her heart to His gospel.
- Robert & Teresa LaDage (UWM/Europe): Praise God for the work He is doing across Europe, even though it is considered the most secularized continent in the world. Pray for 5 new church plants the LaDage's recently visited in European cities and ask the Lord to call many more church planters to Europe. The need is so great. Pray for new believers to grow in their faith and their understanding of the gospel and to put on the full armor of God and resist the schemes of Satan. Lastly, pray for the LaDage's to have wisdom and direction for the future as they continue to meet with the European Network leaders. Praise God for a holiday season with family and friends in the USA this year.
- Lea Ann Wright (iFACE student ministry): Praise God for a wonderful Thanksgiving celebration with over 220 guests at MRPC. Pray that God would use conversations from that night as well as the skit to spark deeper talks about Him. Pray for the international students as they are busy wrapping up this semester. Pray for their friendship families and conversation partners to reach out in creative and thoughtful ways to them this holiday season. Pray for hearts to be opened by the gospel of hope and love and grace.
- Aaron & Amy Speitelsbach (NTM/Liberia): Pray for Aaron & Amy as they are worn out and in need of a break. They have plans to travel for Christmas to see family, pray the Lord brings sweet refreshment to them during this time. Pray for a smooth transition for all as their teammates rejoin them in Liberia this month. Praise God for their literacy classes being full and going well. Pray for God to provide one more person for Amy to check Giarro Bible portions with as the translation work continues.
