August 1-7: Engaging the World Prayer Requests

Debbie Richards (Mission to the World/Chiba, Japan): Debbie returns to Japan at the end of August (after being in South Carolina for the past year) and asks us to pray for her as she says her goodbyes here and re-adjusts to the very different environment of Japan. She will continue to teach English to Japanese students and to lead a Bible study in support of the church planting ministry of her MTW team.

Scott and Ruth Hill (Mission to the World/Cherokee, NC): Scott praises God for the eight weeks of short term teams they have hosted in Cherokee this summer! Vacation Bible schools, construction and fixing flooding issues in their yard have all been accomplished. He asks us to pray that the construction to enlarge their church will be completed soon, and that they could become an official church plant under the supervision of Western Carolina Presbytery.

Wilma Cross (Wilma's Partners in Ministry/Chile): Please pray for Wilma as she ministers to women in the northern dessert of Chile who have been experiencing a deep crisis in their church. She will speak at a two-day retreat they have planned to help them with this spiritual battle they are experiencing. Pray also for the ongoing street ministry she works with where they give out food every Friday night.

Lea Ann Wright (iFace International Student Ministry): Pray that there will be an adequate numbers of volunteers to be matched with students from either Agape English Language Institute, Furman or the Clemson ICAR/MBA program as the fall semester begins soon. And pray for wisdom and strength for Lea Ann as she plans for the many training events, Bible studies, social events and outings with the volunteers and international students in the months to come.
