April 11-17 Engaging the World Prayer Requests

8th grade MRCA short term teams to Bahamas & Cherokee: Praise God for 2 wonderful mission trips to the Bahamas and Cherokee. Pray for the students as they process their experiences and jump back into school this week. Pray for the youth and seniors who heard the gospel through these teams in each location, may the Lord open eyes and hearts to His love.

STM trip to Belgium: Our team from MRPC of 11 leaves this week for over 2 weeks of construction work at the ZavCentre in Brussels. Pray for smooth travel for all, a safe construction site, and for the Lord to use this team to accomplish much for His Kingdom.

Sam & Lizzie Goodwin (MTW/Germany): Praise God for a whirlwind trip of 12 church visits in 12 weeks in which He encouraged, blessed, and challenged us. Pray now that we will rest well and prepare well for our return to Germany. Pray for God to provide the needed 7.5% for us to return to Germany fully funded. Pray for Lizzie as she prepares to lead a day retreat at their home church of St. Andrews Presbyterian on May 5th.

Dave Culmer (MTW/Bulgaria): Pray for the church plant Dave is a part of; pray for unity, for vision for the lost and discipleship of those young in faith, and for others to come to know Jesus through their presence and witness. The Bulgarian members are calling the church “our church” which is so encouraging and they are averaging between 25 and 40 people each Sunday. Pray for Dave and his roommates to continue to love one another and to bear witness with their hearts and tongues to the love of Christ. Pray also for the MTW team to love each other well and to seek Christ and His role in their lives and for Him to be made known.

M. E. Czentnar (Serge/London): Pray for the peace of God that surpasses understanding to guard her heart and mind during this season of change. Praise God for the provision of her fiancé visa so her wedding to Wayne may proceed for June 16th. She will be transitioning from the Serge UK team to the Serge Renewal Team. Pray for M.E. as she grieves leaving the East London Team and as she is wedding planning far from her family in Georgia.

Betsy Aeschliman (MTW/Medical International): Pray for Christ to draw the patients they serve in Costa Rica at the end of this month into His bigger story of hope and redemption. Pray for hearts to be molded like that of Jesus to see and love the lost in La Montana and pray for God to raise up visionary national leaders for the Costa Rican church. Pray for the the bi-national team to have words to fearlessly share the gospel while ministering to medical needs.
