July 11-17: Engaging the World Prayer Requests

Jamie and Jennifer Burkemper (Mission to the World/Mexico): Please pray for the 7-person Mitchell Road team lead by Bob Caldwell that leaves for Mexico on July 14 as they work alongside the Burkempers in Jaurez, Mexico. The team will be focusing on community improvements and youth outreach during the day, and then join in leading a VBS in the evenings for both kids and their moms. There will be over 200 people attending the VBS. The Burkempers are encouraged by a new church planter, Juan Antonio, who will be starting the third mission church in the last six years that has come out of the Promesa de Vida Church. They ask for prayer for him and his family in this big step of faith.

Rick Brawner (Reformed University Fellowship International/Clemson University): Rick thanks God for the wonderful picnic attended by 150 international students and American volunteers as they ended the spring semester in Clemson. He praises God especially for a Chinese visiting scholar who became a Christian this year during a one-on-one Bible study with Rick and is now back in China teaching at his university. He asks for specific prayer as he meets regularly this summer with two non-believing graduate students from China and Turkey and a Christian PhD student from Indonesia.

Aaron and Amy Speitelsbach (New Tribes Mission/Liberia): are in the U.S. until October and we recently enjoyed having them visit Mitchell Road. Aaron is thankful for the language workshop they attending in Florida that helped them to analyze complex features of a language. He asks for prayer that on his return to Liberia he can get a small group of Giarro together who can help him translate Bible lessons into Giarro. He would ideally like to have 4-5 Giarro men.

Ben and Lindsey Nihart (Serge/Kenya): Praise God that they have arrived in Nairobi and have begun their first five week language class with the goal of learning 750 words of Swahili vocabulary! They ask for prayer that they could share the gospel with their language teacher and that she would choose to follow Christ.

Tim and Vivian Wilson (Missionary Training International/Colorado): Tim shares that they are currently teaching a four-week session with 13 families with 32 children, 5 couples, and 4 singles who are all preparing to move to the field soon. He asks that we pray for them to learn the importance of taking a Sabbath, communication among family members, and tips on language acquisition. Please pray for this vital ministry of preparing workers to understand the many challenges of cross-cultural ministry!
