May 16-22: Engaging the World Prayer Requests

- Jim & Sue Akovenko (MTW-The Seed Company/Texas): Pray for those receiving God's Word in a language they fully understand for the first time. May they walk in God's truth and live in obedience to Him. May they have eyes to see and ears to hear of His love and grace.
- Bobby & Teresa LaDage (Redeemer City to City/Europe): Pray for the 3 new churches in Kiev and the 1 in Helsinki that are just beginning. Many of the church planters they are connected to are looking for partner churches. May God provide those partnerships. Pray for more men and women to start churches in Moscow, Oslo, Warsaw, and Stockholm. Finally pray for the LaDage's as they are in the US this summer for a family wedding. May they rest well and have the energy to help with their 10 wonderful grandkids.
- Richard & Robyn Crane (MTW/Cuba): Pray as they travel to Cuba this week to help teach a course on Christian parenting. There is such a great need to understand how grace is lived out in the Christian home as legalism and abuse have been rampant in the not so distant past in Cuba. Pray for all the teachers they are teaching in these counseling courses, may they become strong leaders who boldly live out the gospel.
- Bruce & Pam Sinclair (MTW/Uganda): Pray for the Sinclair's as they wrap up their school year in Uganda and head to the US for the summer. Pray for the students due to graduate this month, may the Lord use them in the places of His choosing. Pray for Bruce's ministry in a Sudanese refugee camp. Praise God for a refreshing area retreat in April with fellow missionaries from Africa and Asia. Praise God also for a wonderful medical outreach hosted by their Ugandan church in partnership with a team from the US. Over 1600 patients were seen and had the opportunity to hear the gospel.
