Dear Colleagues,

NEWS FLASH! You asked—we listened. The Division of Teaching and Learning has been working hard this summer to update our resources, develop new resources and trainings, and find more ways to collaborate with educators. The CCIT Blast is one of those changes. It has been reformatted, redesigned, and renamed. The POST (Professional Online Supports for Teaching) will be delivered to your email address monthly with the latest Division of Teaching and Learning news, classroom resources, and professional learning opportunities. If you are a current Blast subscriber, you will automatically receive the POST. See the details below if you know someone who would like to sign up and share, share, share with your colleagues.

Kimberley Harrington
Chief Academic Officer
Assistant Commissioner

Check your inbox on September 7, 2016 for the first issue of the POST!

How else can we help? Contact us!
Know someone who needs The POST? Send them to the POST sign-up page!
Missing a CCIT Blast mailing? Go to the CCIT Blast Archives!

See you in September!