A Few Words From Pastor Anna

"Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you." Isaiah 60:1-2

Dear Epiphany,

This is our namesake month! As our Christmas celebrations turn to recognition of that guiding Epiphany star that brought the wise ones on a journey to the holy child of Bethlehem, we have the opportunity to think about how the warm, steady light of that star will guide our own lives and our congregation into 2018.

As I read over the Isaiah passage we will hear on Epiphany Sunday, I was particularly struck by verse 2. When I read national and global news these days, I think about how it can truly feel as though an ugly, bitter, dark cloud has covered the earth: one that takes the form of blatant bigotry, extremist violence, and the willful ignorance of facts. Today's news gives us way too many examples of how our individual and system-wide sin prevents us from recognizing the face of God and the glory of the Lord in another person and in God's good creation.

I have also observed that many of us here at Epiphany may feel as though we are currently walking in Isaiah's thick darkness. There is a thick darkness, a thick fog of grief enveloping many of us as we think about beloved Epiphany members who have died in the past year or two – some of our dearest friends and family members. That grief, that darkness is real – and to not acknowledge the way it can completely cover us would be to discredit the ability of that brightest Epiphany star to have any way to make its presence known, even in the darkest of nights.

What does it mean, then, with this darkness, for the Lord to arise upon you, and God's glory to appear over you?

I don't think I can give a universal answer to that question, because I think the ways in which God's glory comes to us look different for every single one of the people of Epiphany; from our smallest babies to our oldest and wisest members, all of us at different stages and places and life experiences. But I think sometimes God's light comes to us in ways that are not necessarily the biggest, brightest stars in the sky or mountaintop experiences. Sometimes it's the small glimpses of God's presence that keep us going.

One way that I personally have been experiencing glimpses of God's presence recently at Epiphany are the ways in which I am fully respected as a single woman of the millennial generation and as a pastor – two identities that many people are not used to seeing together. Recent conversations I've been involved in about the #metoo movement have brought up the awful, dark reality that the number of women who experience the nauseating feeling and/or terrifying experience of being objectified, disrespected, sexually harassed or abused includes clergy who are women as well – and what makes it even worse is that these experiences are often perpetrated by congregation members and colleagues as well. I am SO, so glad that I have not had these experiences at Epiphany: that despite my age and younger-looking appearance, and identity and physical appearance as a woman, I have not had to experience inappropriate comments or actions. Because I am more fortunate in my first call than some of my female colleagues and friends, I truly thank you for your continued support and respect of my pastoral identity in this way. It means more to me than you can imagine. What gives me hope as we all consider the darkness present in our lives these days, is that the glory of the Lord appears to us in each other, as we are present with each other in whatever ways we need to be. Through the love of Christ, we are each other's guiding stars in the nights.

I remain humbled, grateful, definitely still a little overwhelmed (in the best of ways!) and joyful at the innumerable ways in which I have been personally blessed in my first few months at Epiphany. From our intelligent, exuberant confirmation class, full of excitement and curiosity, to our hard-working, deep-thinking, fun-and-Jesus-loving LYO high schoolers, to our dedicated and caring youth and outreach volunteers, to all of the Epiphany families of every size and age who I've been getting to know - you are all truly the guiding star that points me to Christ every day, and the Epiphany light of my life. Thank you.

Epiphany blessings,
Pastor Anna

Men In Mission Christmas Dinner Fundraiser a Huge Success!

The Men in Mission Christmas Dinner Fundraiser held on Tuesday, December 12, 2017 in Epiphany Center was another huge success with over 60 people in attendance. The 10 Men in Mission Board members were assisted by 22 volunteers in presenting the event.

Over 20 Epiphany members and families will be provided with food, clothing, toys for kids, and assistance with bills during the Christmas season and the 2018 calendar year as needs arise.

The individuals and families who are assisted through our event are referred by the pastors. For funds derived from the Men-in-Mission event, priority is given to Epiphany members. Identities of those receiving assistance is kept very confidential and is known to only a few individuals.

Merchandise and donated gifts worth more than $ 6,000 were distributed among the winners of the fundraiser's events. 33 individuals won at least one prize.

Men in Mission is extremely grateful to the more than 50 individuals, families and businesses who contributed a total of over 250 prizes to the event. Values of prizes ranged from $5.00 to $275.00. A significant number of cash donations were also received.

Help Wanted

Help is needed in the nursery on Thursday mornings from 8:00 -9:00 a.m. from January 18 - April 26, 2018. Amy Pilny, Cleo Tengroth, and Sue Wilson graciously give their time to the moms of Praying For Our Children. They watch the babies, preschoolers, and afternoon kindergartners while the moms pray on Thursday mornings. Sue's work schedule shifts after the New Year and we will need to find a volunteer to fill in for her. Sue, thank you for making the kids feel welcomed and allowing the moms to pray! You will be missed! If you are interested and available, please contact Amy Wilson at amykwil33@comcast.net or (312) 933-3989.

Father's Divine Love Ministries

To date approximately $7,500 has been pledged or raised toward the goal of $15,000. This is enough to get the project started. Thank you, Epiphany!

However, if you haven't participated and want to, it's not too late. Please prayerfully consider a donation of any size to help establish a starter flock of 1,000 chickens with all the necessary items needed to bring them to maturity: chicks, feed, medicines and equipment.

Why Set Up a Poultry Operation?

With your help, FDLM can raise healthier children and move toward sustainability.

Once fully in production, the Poultry Project will:

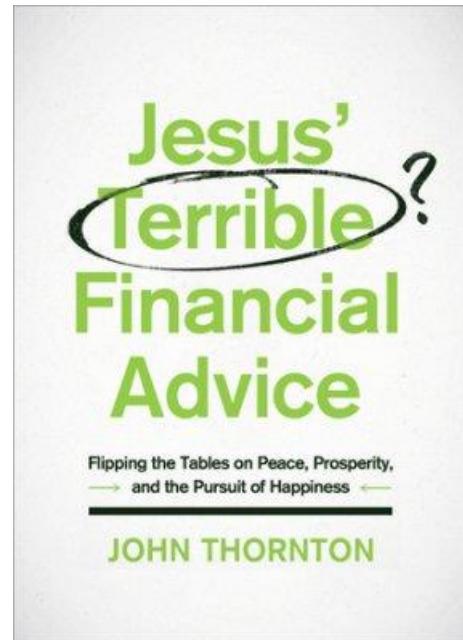

- Provide FDLM consistent income through the sale of chickens and eggs
- Give orphans, caregivers and community nutritional high protein meals
- Assist FDLM orphan costs for medical care and school tuitions
- Create jobs for adults & daily tasks for children impacting the dependence syndrome

FDLM (www.dignityforafrica.org) in Jinja, Uganda, is an orphanage led by Pastor David Livingstone Zijjan and his wife Sarah. We are proud to support this ministry focusing on children orphaned by the HIV/AIDS epidemic. Epiphany Outreach teams have visited FDLM twice. David and Sarah have visited Epiphany on a number of occasions.

Check It Out!

People familiar with the story of the pious rich man who asked Jesus how to obtain eternal life think they know the moral, but with his usual detachment, John Thornton notes that most readers, the disciples, and the rich man missed Jesus' point. Neither eternal life nor wealth is the most important issue. The most important issue is being with God, here and forever. Jesus' Terrible? Financial Advice discusses why money, which usually represents the result of toil and always represents potentially anything, can be a blessing, a curse, a stumbling block, or a vault spring. Equality, equity, and generosity are all principles that can be used to distribute money, love, and grace--both human and divine. "So, what would it look like if you follow Jesus' terrible financial advice? In a worst-case scenario, you might look a lot like Him." (Generosity!) This short book is recommended for readers who need a hand with inductive reasoning. (Equity!) Many other new books have also just been shelved, and each can be checked out for FREE! (Equality!)

Genevieve Scaro

Longtime volunteer Genevieve Scaro is simply amazing! At 85 years young, she volunteers every Saturday at the Elmhurst Yorkfield Food Pantry, makes quilts for the Shriner's Hospital, is responsible for all of the paintings and decorating at the food pantry, and now makes quilts and handmade gifts for cancer patients at Hinsdale Hospital. What a blessing to touch so many lives!
