Keynote Presenters

Dr. Karen Mapp is a Senior Lecturer on Education at the Harvard Graduate School of Education (HGSE) and the Faculty Director of the Education Policy and Management Master's Program. Over the past twenty years, Karen's primary focus has been on the cultivation of partnerships among families, community members and educators that support student achievement and school improvement. From 2011 to 2013, Karen served as a consultant on family engagement to the US DOE in the Office of Innovation and Improvement. She currently serves as a consultant to the Family and Community Engagement (FACE) division of Scholastic.

Ernest Morrell is an award-winning author, teacher, and researcher. He is the Macy Professor of English Education and Director of the Institute for Urban and Minority Education at Teachers College, Columbia University. Ernest is the author of eight books including Every Child a Super Reader: 7 Strengths to Open a World of Possible and proudly sits on the Executive Boards of LitWorld and the Education for Democracy Institute.
