

WE ARE HISTORY KEEPERS

A Workshop on Preserving the Cultural & Historical Record of Your Ethnic Community

Saturday, Nov. 5, 2016 | 9 am-3:30 pm
St. Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church Hall, 2100 Boyer Avenue, Seattle

- 9:00 Check-in: Pick up nametags, enjoy refreshments, and browse exhibits.
- 9:30 Welcome! – JoAnne Lee, President and Rosanne Royer, Vice President, Ethnic Heritage Council
Musical Presentation – Christos Govetas and Ruth Hunter, with the St. Demetrios Dancers
- 10:00 What is our historical record and how do we preserve it? Introduction to resources for ethnic community history at the University of Washington Libraries – Anne Jenner, Deepa Banerjee, Nicolette Bromberg, Jessica Albano, Michael Biggins
- 11:00 Breakout Discussion Groups
Small group discussions about what your community has done to document your history and cultural heritage led by UW archivists and librarians.
- 12:00 Lunch and Musical Presentation
Musician Assye Zegaye with “Ethio Girls” Kidest Wasihun, Abby Endalew, Helina Gebre, Derartu Massey
- 1:00 Session 1: The Basics of...
A. How to Preserve Photos with Nicolette Bromberg and Mary Saint Germaine
B. How to Organize and Preserve Audio/Visual Collections with Emily Dominick
C. How to Sort and Put in Order your Organizational Records with Crystal Rodgers
D. How to Archive Personal Papers with Anne Jenner
E. How to Care for or Find New Homes for your Book Collections with Michael Biggins, Harry Murphy and Deb Raftus
F. How to do Oral History Projects with Deepa Banerjee and Juan Luo
G. How to Promote your Collection through Exhibits and Special Projects with Judith Henchy and Jessica Albano
- 1:30 Session 2: The Basics of...
Continue topics from Session 1
- 2:00 Ethnic Dessert Break and Musical Presentation
Penka and Zlatina Encheva, members of Bulgarian Voices of Seattle Women’s Choir, with Michael Lawson, accordion
- 2:30 Wrap-up
Archivists and librarians will summarize the day’s sessions and suggest next steps in archiving your history.

Ethnic Heritage Council

