CURRENT SITUATION SUMMARY

The Ranch Fire continues to threaten the Mendocino National Forest as well as communities that reside north of the fire perimeter. Throughout the night, the Ranch Fire progressed north, steep and rugged terrain, dry fuel, and hot weather continue to challenge suppression efforts. Overnight fire crews constructed control lines and implemented new dozer lines, tying together preexisting containment barriers. Crews continued structure preparation and defense in the communities threatened by the Ranch Fire. Today operations will focus on the northwest and northeast edges of the Ranch Fire, while continuing to develop strategic plans to slow the northern push towards Lake Pillsbury. The south side of the fire has had no significant events and remains in suppression repair and patrol status.

The River Fire had no movement. Suppression repair along with patrol will continue on the River Fire.
