Russian Energy Week 2018

Russian Energy Week (REW) is Russia's largest international business discussion platform for the energy sector. The aim of this event is to showcase future opportunities in the Russian fuel and energy sector and to realize the potential of international cooperation. The Forum is held with the support of the Ministry of Energy of the Russian Federation and the Moscow City Government.

Vladimir Putin
President of the Russian Federation

➤ "The substantive dialogue emerging from Russian Energy Week will enable us to come up with unified approaches to the development of the international energy agenda, and to launch new, mutually beneficial initiatives."

Sergei Sobyenin
Mayor of Moscow

✓ "In the years since it was first held, the Forum has grown into a major event in the energy world, bringing together representatives of energy firms, government bodies, and the scientific and expert communities. This is an authoritative platform for the sharing of experience and achievements which play an important role in improving energy efficiency in the economy."

Adnan Amin
Director General of the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA)

✓ "It is a great honour for me to be here, as a representative for renewable energy sources, sharing the stage with the world's leading producer of energy and hydrocarbons. Together with representatives from major organizations. Such a thing would have been hard to imagine only a few years ago."

Alexander Novak
Minister of Energy of the Russian Federation

✓ "This is the first time that Russia has hosted such a large-scale international platform as Russian Energy Week, an umbrella under which all of the most significant industry events have been brought together. I am convinced that Russian Energy Week will enable us not only to chart the paths for further development of the energy sector as a whole, but also to demonstrate our achievements."

Gulomzhon Ibragimov
Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Uzbekistan

✓ "We are ready within the context of Russian Energy Week to examine and discuss all proposals from interested parties and to engage in cooperation on a mutually beneficial basis."

Khalid A. Al-Falih
Minister of Energy, Industry and Mineral Resources of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

✓ "Our countries' partnership in cooperation with a coalition of 24 states has become a catalyst for important long-term decisions and has breathed new life into OPEC."

Mohammed Barkindo
Secretary General of the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries

✓ "All of us – the OPEC countries and Russia – share a responsibility as reliable guarantors of the supply of oil to world markets, not only to satisfy current needs, but also for the foreseeable future... Russia has played a decisive role and has fulfilled and indeed exceeded its obligations."

Vagit Alekperov

President, LUKOIL

"Russian Energy Week is an important event in the fuel and energy industry calendar. Its rich programme encompasses just about every current issue facing the domestic and global oil industry and harnesses the joint efforts of its participants to propose comprehensive solutions."

Daniel Yergin

Vice Chairman, IHS Markit

"I'd like to thank the organizers for giving me the opportunity to participate in the work of Russian Energy Week. That is a significant innovation. It gives me great pleasure to be here, to catch up with colleagues whom I haven't seen in a long time, and to discuss a wide range of important economic issues."

Alexey Likhachev

Chief Executive Officer, ROSATOM

"At Russian Energy Week we want not only to present our best technologies, but also, together with our partners and leading experts, to discuss key challenges and global trends in the energy industry."

William D. Magwood IV

Director General, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development Nuclear Energy Agency (NEA OECD)

"Thank you for the invitation to Russian Energy Week. It is a great pleasure for me to be here discussing the most important issues affecting our industry at such a highly professional level."

Johan Vanderplaetse

Senior Vice President, President Russia & CIS, Schneider Electric

"I'm certain that Russian Energy Week will become a key platform for discussing challenges facing the sector, cutting-edge technologies, and solutions for energy development, not only in a Russian context but in a global one too."

Alexey Miller

Chairman of the Management Committee, Gazprom

"The Russian fuel and energy industry is the cornerstone of the national economy and represents a significant part of the global energy sector. In order to develop the industry effectively, we need quality dialogue between representatives from government, business, and the expert community."

Nikolay Shulginov

Chairman of the Board, General Director, RusHydro

"It's especially important for energy professionals to adopt a systematic approach and to "synchronize watches" on a regular basis. Russian Energy Week helps government bodies, companies, and experts to develop optimal long-term solutions for the sector."

Oleg Korzhov

CEO, Mechel

"It is my belief that Russian Energy Week will become a leading contemporary expert platform which will facilitate constructive dialogue between the largest Russian and international energy firms. The Forum already possesses unique potential for sharing opinions, and is strengthening the image of the Russian fuel and energy industry and boosting efforts to attract new investment into the sector."

The Roscongress foundation is a socially oriented non-financial development institution and a major organizer of international conventions, exhibitions, and public events

The Roscongress Foundation was founded in 2007 with the aim of facilitating the development of Russia's economic potential and strengthening the country's image by organizing conventions, exhibitions, and public events. The Foundation develops substantive content for such events, providing companies and organizations with advice, information, and expert guidance, and offering comprehensive evaluation, analysis, and coverage of the Russian and global economic agendas. It offers administrative services and promotional support for business projects and helps to attract investment, including in the form of public-private partnerships.

Today, its annual programme includes events held from Montevideo to Vladivostok, offering an opportunity to bring together global business leaders, experts, the media, and government officials in one place, creating favourable conditions for dialogue and the promotion of new ideas and projects, and assisting in the creation of social enterprise and charity projects.
