From: Rev. Anne Fisher, Transitional Pastor

Eastertide Easter is not a roving holiday in the Spring but an entire season. Too often the trumpets and alleluias disappear after Easter Day. What if we continue to celebrate Easter for five additional Sundays that lead us to Pentecost? My husband, Gregg Dana, while one of the Pastors at Wildwood Presbyterian Church in Illinois, instigated an Eastertide movement. He first formed a committee (so Presbyterian of him!). He recruited artists, writers and others who showed interest and set about to enhance worship each Sunday in Eastertide. Each week they focused on one of Jesus' appearances to his friends and disciples. The time between Christ's resurrection and his Ascension into heaven is a transitional time. It moved the disciples from followers to leaders; students to teachers. In these times of Jesus appearing, he helps them understand and empowers them with the Spirit. As a result, Jesus does not stay as a local phenomenon but is the center of a movement that continues for millennia. Over the next five Sundays, can we feel and catch the Eastertide Spirit?

Blessings,
Anne

Big Thank you!! - I would like to thank Anne, the Personnel Committee and the entire congregation for my wonderful retirement send-off on April 23. Your kind words and cards meant so much to me. As I start my next chapter, I will always look back fondly on the 17+ years I spent as PPC's Office Manager. Thank you for sharing your lives with me. Peace and joy to all of you,
Mari

Youth Update

- Matt Spoden
Children and Youth Ministry Intern

The youth have been busy this month between Easter celebration, baking cookies, and going laser tagging at Whirlyball! May is shaping up to be a great time with the confirmation students being confirmed at the end of the month, and other events such as our tradition of "ice-blocking"! The youth would also like to thank the congregation for the continual support you have provided so that the youth can go on the mission trip this summer. If you have any questions about the youth program, or would like to get involved please email Matt at mspoden@plymouthpc.org

On May 7 Rich Swartwood, CEO of Clearwater Forest Camp, will be joining us for worship and will be available to talk and meet with members who have questions regarding Camping and camp Programs at Clearwater Forest. Clearwater Forest has been an influencing factor on many of our member's life concerning their Spiritual growth.

"Can you raise your hand?"

says, you are on the crew to clean the church. Come one, come all on Saturday, May 20th at 9:00a.m. to 1:00 p.m., (windows, pews, carpet storage room).
