

LJPC MISSION PARTNER CATALOG

25 MISSION PARTNERS

IN THE SCHOOLS • IN THE CITY • AND AROUND THE WORLD

Welcome to the La Jolla Presbyterian Church Mission Partner Catalog

November 2017,

La Jolla Presbyterian Church is committed to mission. Whether starting new ministries in San Diego or connecting with churches around the world, LJPC has always seemed to have a deep commitment to serving people who sometimes go unnoticed.

We are excited to be able to gather all of the missions and ministries that we support in one catalog. As you read through this catalog you will discover some of the work that these agencies and ministries are doing. It is truly inspiring!

You can also learn about ways that you can support our mission partners throughout the year. Most of them have volunteer opportunities and there are also ways that you can support them financially.

In Matthew 25 Jesus tells a parable about serving those who are hungry and thirsty and in need of clothes. He talks about those who find themselves unable to help themselves. He encourages his listeners to keep an eye out for those in need and to help them, because they will hear these words...'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.' (Matthew 25:40)

I want to encourage you to look through this catalog. You will be able to discover some ways that you and your family can join in the work that God is already doing through our amazing mission partners.

Blessings,

Rev. Dr. Paul Cunningham

Welcome to the La Jolla Presbyterian Church Mission Partner Catalog

The catalog also has gift suggestions that would make wonderful Christmas presents, birthday presents, any occasion presents. Few of our friends or family need more stuff, but they might be really touched to see that a donation in their name is providing tutoring for an urban child, or a Bible for a prisoner, or a sweater for a blind child in Malawi. We have gift cards that you can distribute to your family and friends from each mission partner, outlining what you chose in their name.

Our Partners in the Schools

When Christ talked about mission in Matthew 18 and 19, he included reaching out to strangers. He talked about the importance of children in the Kingdom of God. Many of the students and children in the San Diego area are recent arrivals in the U.S. or are at risk for various reasons here and around the world.

Our Partners in the City

When Christ talked about mission in Matthew 25, he included reaching out to serve the hungry, homeless, prisoners, and strangers. These may be people on the edge of economic survival, recently released prisoners, young military families, or refugees with scant resources.

Our Partners Around the World

In Africa, Central & South America, India, Mexico, Asia and Belgium LJPC has partners with whom we work to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, care for sick, and serve as we're needed in the name of Christ.

Great Places to Volunteer...

How do you decide where to get involved? It's a matter of prayer and passion. Read through this catalog prayerfully. Ask God to stir your heart for the need you can meet. Or are you already passionate about how you would like to serve? One of our partners has a place for you.

Great Gifts to Give...

Can you really give friends and family gifts that don't come from a department store? Yes. Be intentional in matching the gift to the person. Wrap the gift card that describes the mission just as you would any present. Few people need more "stuff." Many need the joy of knowing they helped a kid go to camp, bought medicine for a refugee, or gave someone a Bible in their native language.

Each year SunHouse students head south of the border to use their skills, strength, and heart for service to make a life changing impact for families in need of a safe home. In the community of Tecate, Mexico it is common for homes to be built of plywood, garage doors, and tarps. We have the opportunity to instead provide families with structurally sound houses that they can turn into loving homes for their families. Houses are not the only thing built on this trip though! We also have a group of students leading a Vacation Bible School for children in the community in which we are building homes. VBS allows our group to build and strengthen the children's relationship with Jesus. Finally, through this mission trip we have the opportunity to build and invest in future church leaders as well. This trip allows for our students to explore what it means to serve, lead, and depend upon God in missional opportunities.

PASTORS TO PRISONERS

Pastors to Prisoners provides "yard pastors" to assist Protestant institutional prison chaplains. The task of ministering to at least 5000 men held in five enclosures within the prison is a challenge that allows for the chaplain to spend two to three hours a week on each enclosure conducting inmate worship services, Bible studies, one-on-one counseling and mentoring, and supervising other chapel programs. Their mission is to bring inmates to the Lord and prepare them to make the right choices while inside so that, upon release, they are better able to lead productive lives.

In 2002, the churches in our Presbytery joined hearts, hands and financial gifts to build a worship center for Sudanese refugees struggling to make San Diego their home. ## Plant With Purpose

85% of people in extreme poverty are rural farming families. Deforestation leaves these families even more vulnerable. Plant With Purpose is combating two of the world’s most critical issues: extreme poverty and deforestation. Through holistic community development, families are growing out of poverty, reversing deforestation, and walking with God.
