LATIN AMERICA

Dr. Delia Nüesch-Oliver has submitted her resignation as Area Director for FMWM in Latin America. There is a great deal of momentum for church planting and multiplying leaders, and a great team is in place to lead the Latin American Free Methodist Church into a new season of kingdom fruitfulness. Her resignation is effective March 31, 2019 after almost 11 years in that role.

Dr. Delia and her husband Paul will continue as part of the FMWM team for Latin America full time at least through the end of 2019. Their focus will be to work towards a smooth hand-off to the new Area Director, continuing to implement the Community Church Planting and Pastoral Formation systems, and strengthening the resource base for the Latin America Area. Please pray that God will orchestrate this transition in a way that brings even more growth and maturity to the Latin American Free Methodist Church.
