Sponsoring the TRANSFORMING the Special Education Pipeline to Prison Conference can build visibility for your brand, connect you with attendees, and offer you a forum to share your organization's expertise. Whether you are trying to reach educators, policy leaders, advocates or families, aligning your company with this conference will win your brand valuable exposure.

TRANSFORMING the Special Education Pipeline to Prison Conference examines the roles of behavior management, personal safety and implicit bias, trauma informed care, positive behavior support, and restorative practices in impacting the pipeline to prison. Planned activities will reinforce learning.
