

Walkabouts

APRIL 8, 2018

www.bishopsearchdiobeth.org

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

—Phillipians 4: 6-7

The Walkabouts are a time for the members of the Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem to see and hear from our Bishop Nominees. This is also a great way for our members to show support for the next bishop of our diocese.

From 7-9 pm each night, we will gather together for a welcoming prayer and an introduction of the Bishop Nominees and their spouses. We will then divide the group into two separate areas. During these small group sessions, we will learn more about the Nominees and have the opportunity to ask them questions. Questions will be taken from those emailed in advance, or those written on an index card that evening and submitted to the moderator. Nominees will spend approximately 40 minutes with each small group. At the end of the evening, we will gather back together to hear some brief reflections and a closing prayer.

Our Nominees Want to ### Hear From You

APRIL 8, 2018

www.bishopsearchdiobeth.org

Our Bishop Nominees have a few questions for the Members of the Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem. Please email your answers to bishoptransitiondiobeth@gmail.com. We will publish your responses in upcoming bulletins.

The Rev. Canon
Ruth Woodliff-
Stanley

1. As we think about where to put resources next in the Diocese of Bethlehem, how would you rank these in order of importance to you?
  - * Evangelism
  - * Youth Ministry
  - * Social Justice and Social Outreach
  - * Worship and Christian Formation
  - * Stewardship
2. Tell me about the tender places in the Diocese of Bethlehem—whether you define tender as soft and particularly beautiful or as vulnerable and a bit painful or a combination of both.

1. What have been the most significant moments in the life of the Diocese of Bethlehem?
2. How has your congregation sustained you in the most difficult moments of your life?

The Rev. Canon
Kevin D. Nichols
