

THE UNDERGROUND

Middle School & High School Student Ministries

Join us as we continue our series on friends!

Who are the people you enjoy hanging out with most? Your friends, right? They laugh at your jokes, reply to your Snapchats, invite you to the movies, and hang out with you, even when you smell bad or show off your terrible dance moves. And whether you have a huge group of friends or just one BFF, they can have a huge impact on who you are now and who you become later. But have you ever thought about how you got those friends in the first place? Maybe their family just happened to move in down the street from yours or you ended up in the same ballet class. Maybe you randomly sat next to each other in Chemistry or you just happened to play the same sport. While none of those are bad ways to make friends, it's strange that we leave such an important part of our lives to chance. Perhaps that's why the Bible has so much to say about how we choose and treat our friends. As we look to the Bible for advice about our friendships, we'll discover that one of the best things we can do for our crew is to be their friend on purpose.

Week 1: Mar 22

Your friends can make you or break you.

Week 2: Mar 29

Pay attention to who you're listening to.

Week 3: Apr 5 (Tim Gonzalez)

When it comes to conflict with your crew, relationships > revenge.
