All horses/ponies showing in the Junior Hunter, Pony Hunter, or Pony Jumper sections must be in possession of a USEF measurement card or a copy of a valid measurement form, and the same (in its original form) must be presented to the Horse Show Secretary. Stabling is $30 per night. A grounds fee of $15 per day will be assessed for any horse entered in classes but not stabling. This fee helps cover rental of the facility. Stabling will be assigned on a first come first serve basis. Stall fees are due if a horse occupies a stall at any time during the day or night.

This deposit will be returned or credited to entry if the following conditions are met: 1. All manure, hay, bedding, and trash are removed from stall and front areas of stall. 2. All areas in front of stall are cleaned. 3. Gravel raked and leveled inside the stall in preparation for next occupant. 4. ALL yarn, papers, cigarette butts and other trash removed. Show Manager will issue OK for return of deposit at end of Horse Show after inspection of stalls and stall area.

Please plan accordingly as manager will be busy at end of show. Please note that no stall deposit will be returned or credited to entry until show manager has inspected area.

Review France Equestrian Center rules posted in show office.

Horses must be kept in stalls. Under no circumstances are horses to be turned out in arenas or round pens at any time. Horse/pony must be hand held, tied to hitching post (with adult supervision) or ridden if they are out of their stall. One horse per stall. All horses must be in a stall or in hand.
