Beth's Blessings

Several years ago, former President James Wagner wrote in the Emory alumni magazine about the difference between dissatisfaction and hope, and the necessity of both for our human flourishing. He recalled a national leadership training program in which some Emory students participated in a visioning exercise. They each crafted a newspaper headline that might appear on the morning after their vision of utopia had been accomplished. The students wrote things like, "WAR ENDED," "DISEASE ERADICATED," and "HUNGER ELIMINATED." Soon it dawned on him that the headlines were all voiced in the negative, as if utopia is defined as bad things being absent rather than imagining good things flourishing. He commented, "Optimism based on the desire to rid the world of what is bad may be a vital component of healthy human community and service. But such optimism must be complemented with hope, which is more like a sustaining, creative vision of what can be."

In 1 Chronicles 28:1-10, King David says, "I had planned to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord. . . and I made preparations for building." He had great plans, but God had a larger vision. The one thing King David wanted most—to build the Temple—he had to leave for his son Solomon. God gave a vision for good things to come, but not possible for him to accomplish on his own. As one calendar year ends and a new one begins, we may feel a lot like David and those Emory students, frustrated and disappointed by all the incompleteness and failure of what is past, seeing only the negative and trying so desperately to keep it at bay that we neglect to imagine possibilities and create space for good things to flourish.

In this season of endings and beginnings, a meditation by Archbishop Oscar Romero of El Salvador, written shortly before his martyrdom in 1980, offers this insight: "It helps now and then, to step back and take the long view. The kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision. We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work. Nothing we do is complete, which is another way of saying that the kingdom always lies beyond us. We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We lay foundations that will need further development. We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning . . . an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest."

What plans did you have for 2017? What do you need to let go of as you look toward 2018 with hope for God's creative vision? Help us step back and take the long view, O God. Thank you for the seeds you've helped us plant this year, the foundations you've enabled us to lay. Give us the wisdom to let go of other things and to rest assured that we have a future with hope for enduring good that is held within your care. Amen.

Blessings for the New Year,

Beth

Worship is a covenant call from our Lord to come before Him in reverence, with gladness and joy.

Psalm 100 invites us to:

*Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth!
Serve the LORD with gladness;
Come into His presence with singing.*

*Know that the LORD, He is God.
It is He who made us, and we are His;
we are His people and the sheep of His pasture.*

*Enter His gates with thanksgiving,
and His courts with praise!
Give thanks to Him; bless His name!*

*For the LORD is good;
His steadfast love endures forever,
and His faithfulness to all generations.*

There are a variety of ways you may "come into His presence" to "make a joyful noise" at Lewis Memorial.

Sanctuary Choir News

Joseph, Arlene & Emilia celebrate
Joseph's recent graduation from Augusta University School of Nursing

The Sanctuary Choir presented a beautiful cantata on Sunday, December 17, called "Appalachian Winter." Joseph Silmaro, the director and accompanist, was able to balance family life, nursing school, choir rehearsals, and a rigid clinical schedule. We are thankful for the hours that the Silmaro family has invested in the music ministry of Lewis Memorial UMC.

The Silmaros eagerly await the addition of another daughter to their family in just a few short weeks.

The Sanctuary Choir invites you to a
"Drop-in Gift Card" Shower
Sunday, January 7
12:00 - 2:00 pm

“And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.”
Luke 2:52

252 Basics (Resumes January 7)

Sundays | 5:00 pm |

252 Basics is a curriculum designed for Pre-Kindergarten through 5th Grade.

“What does 252 mean?” It’s not our street address, nor the number of questions a 2nd grader can ask in 20 minutes. Instead, everything we teach in 252 Basics is based on one of three basic, but powerful truths modeled by Jesus in Luke 2:52 (hence 252)

- I need to make the wise choice.
- I can trust God no matter what.

- I should treat others the way I want to be treated.

The curriculum is designed to provoke discovery and invite kids into a new understanding of how to grow in relationship with Jesus Christ.

January Theme:

“Commitment” Work It Out.

January Memory Verse:

“Training the body has some value. But being godly has value in every way. It promises help for the life you are now living and the life to come.”
- 1 Timothy 4:8 NIV

Children's Choir (K-5th grade)

Sundays | 6:00 pm | Choir Room

Resumes January 7th

Why Join? Singing in a choir has been linked to better grades & test scores; increased confidence; improved social skills; self discipline and much more. Make a joyful noise to the Lord!

The choir did an excellent job opening for the Sanctuary Choir's Cantata in December, led by Melissa Tennant. In January, we will begin learning songs for Easter and 5th Sunday Worship on April 29th.

Monday Night Rush Hour Prayer Ministry Every Monday | 4:45 – 6:00 pm

"Rev. Sanders,

My son and I were blessed yesterday through the drive-up prayer. What a wonderful idea! It had been a crazy Monday and I had just picked him up from school when I saw your signs. I drove up and Jill came out and gave us some goodies and prayed with us. Such a sweet lady! We specifically asked for prayer for my sister and her husband. He is out of work and she just lost her job yesterday, so I had just gotten the news right before I picked up my son. Thank you again for such a wonderful service to our community!" (name withheld)

Testimonials like this come to us weekly of how this ministry is impacting our community. One man stopped by on Monday morning, because he got off work early, but didn't want to miss the uplifting prayer he has grown to love and expect. Join the Evangelism and Prayer Ministries in this opportunity to reach out to these souls who are hurting and in need of a word of encouragement, a drink of cool water, and a whispered prayer.

There are many ways you can be involved:

- Hold a sign and wave
- Pass out water bottles
- Bake Cookies
- Greet with a smile
- Pray as the Spirit leads
