Small Business Trade Show

April 11, 2017
4 PM to 7 PM

Here is your chance to showcase your small business to hundreds of potential customers. Vendors have the opportunity to sell products or services straight to the general public. Definition of small business is flexible and is meant to include those new to business or those with a small number of employees. Home based businesses are also welcome to attend. Great Plains Technology Center reserves the right to determine if a business will qualify as small for this event.

Registrations paid before March 1, 2017, are only $40. After this date, booths will increase to $50. Registration includes one 6 foot table and two chairs. Each business is required to have a door prize to be given away during a scheduled time at the event.

Please complete and return with payment.
