

Hope and Help ADDICTION AND THE OPIOID CRISIS

What can you do to help?
Where can you find help in Bucks County?
Issues in Bucks County
FREE Narcan and Training

WHEN: April 19, 2018
TIME: 7:00 – 8:30 PM
WHERE: Upper Makefield Township Building
1076 Eagle Road
Newtown, PA 18940

Guest Speakers:

Dr. Joseph Campbell, Bucks County Coroner: The scope of the opioid epidemic in Buck County

Diane Rosati, Executive Director, Bucks County Drug & Alcohol Commission, Inc.: What resources are available in Bucks County

Dave Fialko, The Council of Southeast Pennsylvania: The signs and symptoms of addiction; How to use Narcan if you suspect an opioid overdose

Bucks County residents who participate in the training will receive one free dose of Narcan per household. You must register to reserve your dose of Narcan by calling 215-968-3340.

This event is made possible through a partnership with the Bucks County Drug & Alcohol Commission, Inc., the Council of Southeast PA, Inc, the Council Rock Coalition for Healthy Youth and Upper Makefield Township

Upper Makefield
Township