

Region 8 North Carolina Art Educators Association Spring Professional Development Workshop

Saturday April 22, 2017 9:00 – 3:00

Roots and Wings School of Art and Design Asheville, NC

Cost: FREE Limited to 25 participants

Register by emailing: dorothy.hambright@bcsemail.org

8:45 - Coffee and Breakfast snacks

9:00 – 12:00 Session 1: Poetic Metaphors: Explorations in Chalk and Collage

Instructor: Ginger Huebner

Ginger Huebner, founder of Roots + Wings School of Art and Design, will explore her own mediums of collage, chalk and encaustic with everyone. Learn about different techniques for layering and transferring collage items, the variety that can be discovered in chalk, and simple methods of applying encaustic medium as a final layer. We will work on paper and panels exploring the endless possibilities!

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch on your own

1:00 – 3:00 Session 2: Printmaking Without a Press

Instructor: Lisa Jones

Printmaker Lisa Jones, invites you to explore the endless possibilities of pulling prints from a press. We will use plexiglass plates to create monotypes, also known as painterly prints. We will also carve into linoleum blocks to create relief prints. Printmaking is for everyone, so please bring a willingness to explore, and we will learn about this fun and creative process together!

Participants will receive .5 CEU credit All materials provided