Siyum: TaNaKh - Setting Goals Celebrating Achievements

The forty-nine days from Pesach to Shavuot mark the journey of our ancestors from Egypt to Sinai and a covenanted relationship with God. The forty-nine day count ends with our ancestors ready to hear God's word and receive the Ten Commandments. More than simply counting the days, is there more that we can do? This year, the answer is 'yes'.

Below is a link to an online document where every Beth David member will have the opportunity to register to read one book or more of the TaNaKh (Bible) between Pesach and Shavuot. You can read any book(s) you choose (even if someone else also chooses the same one), and you may read it in any language. The only requirement is that you complete your reading by Shavuot (June 8). The goal is that every book of the TaNaKh will be read by members of the congregation.

TaNaKh is derived from the names of the three sections of our "Bible" - "T" stands for Torah, the Five Books of Moses; "N" stands for Neviim, the books of the prophets; "K" stands for Ketuvim, the associated Biblical writings.

In keeping with the spirit of Shavuot being a celebration of Torah, Beth David will dedicate its holiday Torah studies to themes associated with revelation, canonization and sacred texts.

Our Kiddush on the second day of Yom Tov (Monday, June 10) will be a "siyum" in honor of the accomplished goal of the congregation reading the TaNaKh, and to acknowledge every person (any age) who participated in the campaign.

The link is active and it is easily accessible via one click in the weekly e-bulletins. Rabbi Adler can lend to you a copy of any of the texts if you do not already own a copy of TaNaKh.

Have you signed up yet to read for our "Siyum TaNaKh?"

Remember to count Omer every night after dark!
Today is the twenty-first day of the Omer.
