VENUE APPRECIATION!

We are excited to host our conference at the Sea Mar Museum of Chicano/a/Latino/a Culture. The Museum is the first of its kind in the Pacific Northwest and showcases the history of Chicano/as and Latino/as from post war migration to present day. It also features the significant contributions of the Chicano/as and Latino/as community in Washington state using a social justice lens. Admission to the Museum is free for conference participants. The Museum is open from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM.
