

Migration Ministries

ENews Article 2/10/26

Episcopal Clergy and Churches Stand Up for and Assist Immigrants all across the US

From coast to coast Episcopalians are joining with other congregations, nonprofits, and individuals in their communities to stand up for and walk with their immigrant neighbors as the unprecedented violent immigration enforcement continues.

Here are stories of courage and commitment and examples of the actions being taken. These stories can inspire and encourage us and teach us how we can help our immigrant neighbors in our communities.

- 154 Episcopal bishops (including Bishop Megan) issue message calling for immigration policies respecting the dignity of all - Click here for ENS article
- Religious Leaders in Minnesota Say It's Their Duty to Resist ICE - Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe, the head of the Episcopal Church, said (in the article) it was Christians' responsibility to go further.
  "I think that we may be called to put our bodies on the line and that we should be ready to do that," he said. "We all have a responsibility to resist this as Christians and that kind of resistance may cost us our life." Click here for NY Times article
- From Presiding Bishop Rowe - Support Emergency Migration Ministry - Click Here for info. To apply for funds contact EMM@episcopalchurch.org
- New York church hosts pop-up legal clinic to help asylum-seekers apply for work permits - Click Here for ENS article
- All Saints, Pasadena - 800 attend Community Patrols Training - Click here for Pasadena NOW article
- St Andrew's, Manchester NH - New Hampshire faith leaders call for love over fear, denounce ICE tactics - Click here for Manchester Ink Link article

For more information about these stories and immigration actions in our diocese contact - Bob Wohlsen, Immigration Ministries chair - bob.wohlsen@gmail.com