The webinars will be recorded for future reference and posted on the Training Providers page of the Training Provider Registry website.

In this webinar, you'll learn:

Which CDLs and endorsements require entry-level driver training.

- The types of training that are required for each CDL and endorsement type.
- How to correctly register training locations so the provider can submit required driver training certification.
- How to correct a driver training certification record if it was entered incorrectly.
- How to avoid entering an incomplete driver training certification record.
