

Alison Klein Sherman named President of Klein Transportation, Wayne Klein as CEO

Douglassville, PA; December 17, 2020 - Klein Transportation, also known as Klein's Bus Service, Inc., is one of the few bus companies in the region that has been family-owned and operated for over 60 years. Klein provides safe, critical transportation as part of our nation's infrastructure. Our transportation business connects people to many of life's important activities and events. Whether it is taking commuters to work, groups on vacation trips, or transporting sports and school teams to games, the safety of our passengers has always been our top priority.

During a virtual company meeting on Thursday, December 17, 2020, now CEO, Wayne Klein of Klein Transportation, announced that Alison Klein Sherman was named as the new company President.

Alison Klein Sherman, Wayne's daughter and 4th generation of management at Klein, has grown up in the industry with work experience at a destination management organization, hotel and multiple motorcoach companies. Alison holds her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management, Marketing and Travel & Tourism. Her combined experiences have helped to prepare her for this position.

"I am passionate about leading our company and the Klein Transportation family of employees into the future," said Klein Sherman. "Working with my Dad is a great honor, and I am confident there are great things to come at Klein as we work together to lead the company."

For more info about Klein Transportation contact Alison Klein Sherman, President by email at alisons@kleintransportation.com or by phone: 484-925-0102.

