Adventure Tours Brokers Deal with Sterling Worldwide Limo & Sterling Charters

[Charlotte, NC] — [February 17, 2026] — Adventure Tours, a leading charter bus company on the East Coast, today announced it has acquired select intangible assets of Sterling Worldwide Limousine & Sterling Charters, including its brand, customer relationships, client reservations and related goodwill. This transaction does not include the purchase of the company entity, its physical assets, or any past or future liabilities. Sterling Worldwide Limo & Sterling Charter is a luxury transportation company providing black car, minibuses and motor coach services based out of Charlotte, NC.

The acquisition supports Adventure Tours' strategic growth objectives by expanding its customer base and strengthening its presence in Charlotte, NC and surrounding areas. Clients included in the transaction will benefit from expanded service offerings, increased fleet options, enhanced support, improved technology and most importantly continuity of the excellent service they had experienced with Sterling Worldwide Limo & Sterling Charter.

"This transaction reflects our continued focus on sustainable growth and long-term client relationships," said Adnan Khan, President of Adventure Tours. "We look forward to welcoming these clients and providing them with the high level of service, reliability, and expertise they expect."

As part of the transition, clients will experience a seamless onboarding process with no immediate disruption to services. Adventure Tours is committed to maintaining continuity while introducing additional capabilities and resources over time.

"We are so pleased to partner with Adventure Tours to ensure our beloved clients continue to receive the same high standards that they have come to expect. I am thrilled to work very closely with Adventure Tours to accomplish a seamless transition," said Ricardo Ramsey, President of Sterling Worldwide Limo & Sterling Charters.

The terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
