

STORIES THAT SPEAK: PERSPECTIVE THROUGH PICTURE BOOKS

In this outdoor, socially distanced spring series, community members will read aloud picture books containing themes of diversity, equity, and inclusion. Sessions will take place on the grounds of the Hastings-on-Hudson Library. In case of rain, sessions will occur remotely.

Sabine Paz-LeDraoulec, member of the Hastings High School Affinity Group, will read the books:

To reserve a spot and ensure that we can provide social distance, please RSVP at hastingslibrary@gmail.com

EYES THAT KISS IN THE CORNERS
BY JOANNA HO

&

LAXMI'S MOOCH
BY SHELLEY ANAND

SATURDAY, MAY 8 | 10:00 AM

Look out for future readings on 5/15, 5/22, and 6/5!

This event is sponsored by Hastings Friends of the Library, Hastings RISE (Racial Inclusion and Social Equity), and Parenting Children of Color (P-CoC)

