RACE MATTERS COMMITTEE 2021 ART CONTEST

“I walk in and out of several worlds every day.”

“Remember that you are all people and people are all of you”

— Joy Harjo

Joy Harjo is an internationally renowned performer and writer of the Muscogee (Creek) Nation and was named the 23rd Poet Laureate of the United States in 2019. She is the first Native American Poet Laureate.

The Race Matters Committee needs your help! The 5th Annual Hastings on Hudson Multicultural Book Fair (June 2nd-June 5th) is once again calling on our young creative minds to design artwork that addresses the above quotes.

Enter and win!!

- All entries from last year's contest will be entered for this year and new artwork can respond to either of the two quotes.
- Artwork must be 2-Dimensional and completed on 9" x 12" paper.
- Please hand in work to your building Art Teacher at Hillside, Farragut, or HHS with your first and last name, grade, and homeroom teacher written on the back.
- Grand Prize winning artwork will be featured in the advertisements for the 5th Annual Multicultural Book Fair and Festival, June 2nd- 5th.
- Additional winners will be selected from each school and included in the PTSA calendar next year.
- Deadline for all entries is May 7th.

We look forward to all of the wonderful ideas our young artists create!

Best of luck to everyone participating!
