A Powerful Message of Hope, Purpose, and Change: Underage Drinking is Not a "Rite of Passage"

On October 17, 2008, Kathi's 17-year-old daughter Taylor passed away after attending a homecoming game and a series of underage drinking parties during her senior year of high school. Since 2009, Kathi has dedicated herself to sharing her story, and Taylor's message, with the hope of helping others. Staggering statistics about the prevalence of underage drinking drive her to help raise awareness and educate parents and youth. This presentation will highlight the risks of youth alcohol use, the legal liability associated with allowing underage drinking in your home, and the importance of communication in guiding your teen to make healthy choices.

The Joseph V. Caruana (JVC) Foundation is based in Brooklyn, NY and partners with speakers like Kathi Sullivan to help educate youth and their parents about the effects and dangers of drug & alcohol use and the path to addiction.
