

NOVEMBER IS

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

During National Native American Heritage Month, we celebrate the countless contributions of Native peoples past and present, honor the influence they have had on the advancement of our Nation.

National Native American Heritage Month is a time to recognize the histories, invaluable contributions and livelihood of Native American and Alaska Native people in the United States. It is an opportunity to educate the general public about tribes, their cultures, traditions and languages. Use this time to highlight the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and presently, as well as the ways in which tribal citizens have overcome these challenges.
