

Tri Valley Breast Cancer Symposium—Thriving, Not Just Surviving

Wednesday, October 14, 2026
5:30-8:00 p.m.

Rosewood Commons
Conference Center
4400 Rosewood Drive
Pleasanton, CA 94588

Join us as we discuss the latest in treatments and resources for patients and caregivers navigating a breast cancer diagnosis.

SPEAKERS

Moderator

Rishi Sawhney, MD, Hematologist-Oncologist

Panelists

Jean Bao, MD, Breast Surgical Oncologist

Shannon Gaffney, MD, Radiologist

Kavitha Raj, MD, Hematologist-Oncologist

Anna Zhou, MD, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon

AGENDA

5:30-6:00 p.m. Health Expo

6:00-8:00 p.m. Program

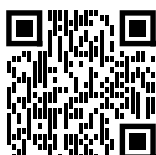

Topics include:

- Reframing fear of a breast cancer diagnosis and embracing a mindset that supports growth, resilience, and thriving—not just surviving
- Breast imaging limitations for dense breast tissue and other options to explore
- Patient perspectives moving beyond diagnosis
- New innovations including nipple sparing mastectomy (NSM)
- Reconstruction options after lumpectomy or mastectomy

Stanford
MEDICINE

Cancer Center

REGISTER

To learn more and register to attend in person, scan this QR code or go to stanfordhealthcare.org/cancercenterevents.