“A Historic Day”: Diocesan Convention Approves THRIVE Recommendations

During her convention address on October 13, Bishop Shannon said that by passing the canonical changes proposed by THRIVE, “it is not an exaggeration to say that you will have created a new diocese here in Vermont. You will have created a new container for mission that can help all of our congregations work more effectively for the spread of the gospel in our state.”

Later that evening, convention went on to approve a streamlined diocesan structure that includes a new Committee on Congregational Development and a Commission on Finance, and voted for leaders to populate them. Delegates also elected deputies to the 2024 General Convention, adopted the 2023 budget, and approved clergy compensation minimums.

Kelly Kimball Named Rock Point Commons Executive Director

Kelly Kimball, a Burlington resident with 20 years of worldwide experience in supporting donor-funded local development programs, has been named executive director of Rock Point Commons, Bishop Shannon MacVean-Brown, president of the Rock Point board, announced today.

Kimball, an associate in the government and democracy sector at Tetra Tech ARD in Burlington, has worked extensively as a project manager, new business developer, and team leader on projects focusing on environmental stewardship, youth participation, community engagement gender equity and social inclusion.

“We are excited to have someone with Kelly’s varied and considerable experience as our new executive director,” Bishop MacVean-Brown said. “Her skills are an excellent match for our needs, as we seek to maintain Rock Point Commons on a firm financial footing, preserve its bountiful natural beauty and enhance the community’s awareness of what Rock Point Commons has to offer.”

Re-Member: A Day of Healing, Celebration and Hope

The in-person portion of diocesan convention took place on Saturday, October 5 at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in Burlington.

"As we commit ourselves to the mission of Jesus and vitality of our diocesan household, may we be animated by the power and of love of God and love for this diocese," Bishop Shannon said during her convention sermon. "And of course, continue to step out of the boat and, like Peter, go closer to Jesus."

The program featured keynotes from the Rev. Lorenzo Lebrija, founding director of TryTank, and the Rev. Whitney Rice, canon for evangelism & discipleship development in the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri.

In Memoriam: The Rt. Rev. Mary Adelia Rosamond McLeod

On Wednesday, October 12, Bishop Shannon sent the following message to the people of the Diocese of Vermont.

Dear People of God:

With sorrow, I am writing to tell you that the Rt. Rev. Mary Adelia McLeod, Ninth Bishop of Vermont, died this afternoon at her home in Charleston, West Virginia, after a long illness.

Since I became your bishop, Mary Adelia has encouraged and supported me, sharing with me the wisdom she gained during her time as your bishop. I will miss her kindness, her counsel, and her wise spirit. I am honored and humbled to carry her legacy forward in our ministry together.

Read Bishop Shannon's entire message and an obituary on the diocesan website, and read about Bishop McLeod's life in the Charleston Gazette-Mail and the New York Times.

Join the Abolish Slavery VT Campaign
Vermont Interfaith Action and the Vermont Racial Justice Alliance

While Vermonters are often told that the Green Mountain State was the first to abolish slavery, the Vermont constitution includes three exceptions to this prohibition: those under age 21, those who consent to being enslaved, and as punishment for debts, damages and fines.

Vermont Interfaith Action and the Vermont Racial Justice Alliance are supporting the passage of Proposal 2, which would amend the state constitution to prohibit slavery and indentured servitude in all forms. It has passed the legislature twice, and will be on the ballot on November 8.

In addition to voting for Proposal 2, Vermonters can join in canvassing efforts:

- Pledge to vote "yes."
- Request a lawn sign for your home by emailing office@viavt.org with your name and address to have a sign dropped off for you.
- Phone bank from home on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The remaining dates for phone banking are October 26 and 27 and November 2 and 3. Email office@viavt.org with your name, email, and phone number to sign up. The phone banking system is fully automated.

Celtic Advent Weekly Meditation Starting November 14 Monday through Friday at 8:30 a.m.

Anam Cara Sojourners, a group that explores Celtic spirituality and is directed by the Rev. Kim Hardy of St. James, Essex Junction, is hosting Celtic-themed weekday meditation and prayer during Advent.

The group will gather on Zoom Monday through Friday at 8:30 a.m., beginning November 14. Each morning the Rev. Kim Hardy or the Rev. Dr. Fred Moser will lead a prayer service and offer a brief reflection. The accompanying text for this year's services will be Advent in Narnia by Heidi Haverkamp. Everyone is welcome, and participants do not need to commit to attending every day.

Email the Rev. Kim Hardy to receive the Zoom link.

Episcopal Migration Ministries 2023 Calendar Features Kelly Latimore Icons

Episcopal Migration Ministries (EMM) has partnered with iconographer Kelly Latimore to create a monthly calendar featuring depictions of refugees, asylum seekers, and displaced persons. The 2023 calendar includes a newly commissioned triptych for EMM—titled “Build a Longer Table”—featuring the holy family and representations of individuals served by EMM during more than 80 years of ministry.

Calendars will be sent to EMM's monthly donors. Learn more and become a monthly donor.
