Lunch and Little Theatre

Join us for a delightful afternoon for lunch at Nick's Boathouse at 12 Noon and "Camelot" at Pensacola Little Theatre at 2:30 pm on Sunday, June 29. "Camelot" is a timeless musical that transports audiences to the legendary kingdom of King Arthur, his beloved Queen Guinevere, and the valiant Knights of the Round Table. Filled with romance, chivalry, and the pursuit of an idealized society, the story explores themes of honor, betrayal, and the struggle to maintain peace in a world rife with conflict.

The minimum number for the group rate is 10 people. The cost is $58 per person and includes lunch (with tax and tip) and play tickets. More tickets can be purchased if additional people want to go and tickets are available.

There will be a choice of 5 entrees for lunch. Please indicate any dietary restrictions. Fill out the information below and return with a check made payable to Christ Church for $_____ and send to Lucy Rentz, 4795 Velasquez, Pensacola, 32504. Contact her for additional information – 850-554-7144.
