

Leading With Humanity and Compassion: Virtues From Faith Traditions and Beyond

As we transition from the end of Ramadan to the start of Passover, please join us for an evening of dialogue with community leaders exploring the ways in which commonality exists across a diverse spectrum.

Event Details: April 18th • 6:30-8:30PM
Pearl S. Buck International Tent

Ticket Price: $75.00 per person

Table price discounted 10%

RSVP By: 4/8/2024

@ pearlsbuck.org/community-panel

(100% of proceeds go to supporting PSBI)

Ticket is good for admission at 5:30pm to exhibit "Hidden Gems: Fashioning A Legacy" at the JLM Conference Center.

Speakers:

Samah Elhajibrahim

KinderUSA

Samah Elhajibrahim grew up in Lebanon as a Palestinian refugee. She came to the U.S. 22 years ago. She recently finished her PhD in political science at UPenn. She currently teaches at UPenn and has been volunteering and fundraising for KinderUSA for more than 10 years.

Asheq Fazlullah

Interfaith Philadelphia

Asheq Fazlullah serves as the Director of the Leadership Institute at Interfaith Philadelphia, making efforts to increase religious literacy and help develop dialogue skills. He also serves with Campus Ministry at Villanova University at Swarthmore College and the IMPACT Center at Bryn Mawr College.

Tahija Vikalo

Sisterhood of Salaam Shalom

Tahija Vikalo serves as the Executive Director of the Sisterhood of Salaam Shalom. She has been involved with this organization for more than five years as a member, chapter co-leader and a board member prior to assuming her current position. She was born in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Dr. Hasshan Batts

Promise Neighborhoods

Dr Batts is survivor, healer, son, father, friend. He is a Tri-sector leader, philanthropist, author, Community Epidemiologist, and leading expert on Trauma Informed Care, Reentry and Community engagement, as well as the Executive Director of the Promise Neighborhoods of the Lehigh Valley.

Imam Idris Abdul-Zahir

Masjidullah

Idris Abdul-Zahir, a Philadelphia native, currently serves as the Resident Imam of Masjidullah: The Center for Human Excellence. Masjidullah is one of the largest and most civically engaged Muslim congregations in the city. He was recently appointed by Governor Josh Shapiro to serve on the GACAAA.

Rabbi Nancy Fuchs Kreimer

RRC

Rabbi Nancy Fuchs Kreimer, Ph.D., has been involved with interfaith dialogue for nearly four decades. She launched RRC's department dedicated to multifaith studies in the late 1980s and pioneered innovative service-learning courses, internships and unique opportunities for RRC students to study sacred texts with their Christian and Muslim counterparts.

