

Camp Mariposa

For Children Affected by Substance Use in Their Families

Camp Mariposa is a free, year-round program for youth ages 9-12 impacted by substance use in their families. The program includes six weekend-long camp experiences throughout the year, offering fun activities alongside education and support sessions that build resiliency. All programs are led by mental health professionals and trained adult mentors.

What makes Camp Mariposa special:

- Therapeutic support in a child centered environment
- Fun camp activities that foster emotional well-being
- Lasting friendships and community with peers who understand

“I would describe Camp Mariposa as a safe place for kids like me to have fun and continue to learn that addiction is not my fault.”
