Spring 2023 Professional Education Workshop

FCP's spring Professional Education Workshop will be held at the Bucks County Intermediate Unit in Doylestown, Pa., and on Zoom. For planning purposes, please carefully consider your attendance selection at the time of registration as we are unable to accommodate last-minute changes. A day before the presentation, all registrants will receive detailed instructions via e-mail on how to join the presentation based on their selected attendance option, and how to receive CE credits. The registration fee is $50 per person.

Wednesday, April 5, 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Telehealth Tips, Strategies, and Ethics

The goal of this workshop is to demonstrate examples of common ethical concerns faced by practicing clinicians providing counseling and related services via telehealth. A review of current laws, practice standards, and future trends of mental health services will be provided, followed by relevant case examples outlining potential ethical judgments.

Presented by Charles Jacob, M.S.Ed., Ph.D., Seton Hall University & University of Pennsylvania
