

Amplifying Impact: The Case for Advocacy in Nonprofit Work

JOIN US!

Nonprofits are key players in addressing pressing social and economic challenges. But to create lasting mission and community impact, many organizations overlook a powerful tool: advocacy.

Join us on November 14 to hear from leaders across the nonprofit sector who will share how integrating advocacy into your mission can unlock new opportunities, drive systemic change, and increase your organization's reach and effectiveness.

Discover how advocacy isn't just an option, but a critical strategy for addressing the root causes of the issues you care about.
