

St. Luke's Episcopal Church Native American Ministry Committee is proud to invite all interested parties to take a Magical Journey with Michael Goodluck, Navajo Flutist and Story Teller.

The father of two children, Michael has dedicated himself to combating alcohol and drug abuse in the Navajo Nation as a Youth Coordinator working with Fighting Back, Inc. He adheres to this personal statement; "Each one of us has a unique opportunity to make this world the best it can become—for ourselves and the people around us."

As for his music, Michael has crafted his own line of flutes for 25 years. The haunting melodies that accompany his stories add a special element to the experience.

You're invited to meet him in person on Saturday, February 17, 11AM to 12:30 PM at St. Luke's Episcopal Church Parish Hall, 2000 Shepherd's Lane, Prescott 86301. Go north on Highway 89, pass the airport and turn right on Ruger Road.

Program: One hour presentation followed by 30 minutes of questions and answers.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, ALL ARE CORDIALLY WELCOMED, NO CHARGE.

Building Bridges of Understanding dedicated to Caring, Learning, Interacting, Participating.