

WOULD YOU LIKE TO DEVELOP SKILLS TO BE A FACILITATOR FOR SMALL GROUP BIBLE STUDIES?

If so, The ART of Engaging Holy Scripture Bible Study Group Training might be for you!

The informal name is ‘TAEHS’ (rhymes with ‘days’) TAEHS teaches a method of engaging the Scriptures through reading and study, conversational and silent prayer and through group sharing. This dynamic method of engaging the Scriptures gently leads us to experience the presence of the Holy Spirit. We become awakened to the presence of the Holy Spirit in the Scriptures, in our own selves, and in our sisters and brothers. As our ability is refined, the method continues to nurture us in an ever-deepening relationship with the Holy Spirit. At the same time, we are learning the Bible and, because of the experiential focus, tend to retain more of what we learn. The small group context offers the opportunity for meaningful faith-based friendships to develop within our larger Christian faith community—and for having fun!

The TAEHS training:

- Immerses participants in the method of TAEHS for three days and prepares them to continue a lifelong practice.
- Imparts the unique skills and perspective of a small group formation environment.
- Includes curriculum that provides everything needed to facilitate their group.
- Creates the possibility of an ongoing facilitators’ group that continues their learning and development.
- All participants receive a notebook with a year’s curriculum with timelines, maps, resources and a facilitator’s handbook.

Who Should Attend the Facilitator Training?

The TAEHS curriculum can be foundational to grounding a parish in prayer and ruminating on the scriptures in community. This can significantly influence the culture of a parish.

I am looking for 6 to 12 parish leaders who can partner with Fr. Marc in mentoring the parish. Ideally, following the facilitator training, Fr. Marc will meet weekly with the leaders, providing a “safe” place to continually refine their skills and for continued to mentorship.

You must be available for the entire three day training from Thurs. Oct. 29 – Sat. Oct.31 from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm at All Saints Episcopal Church in Phoenix.

Cost: $275. Groups of three or more, $225 per participant.

Scholarships are available upon request. Lunch will be provided each day.

Hotel arrangements should be made at: Fairfield Inn & Suites Phoenix Midtown

Please email Fr. Marc at: frmemc@gmail.com if you are interested.
