The Chrism Mass (Trinity Cathedral, Phoenix)

During the Chrism Mass those present are called to renew their baptismal promises; priests and deacons also reaffirm their ministry by renewing the promises made at their ordination. The Mass takes its name from the blessing of the holy oils used in the sacraments throughout the year, which are then given to priests to take back to their parishes. Thus, whenever the holy oils are used, the ministry of the bishop who consecrated them is symbolically present.
