

Are you interested in experiencing “more” in your spiritual life? If so, The Order of the Daughters of the King is something you may want to ask some questions about. Yes, there is a very active chapter here at St. Luke’s! You may have seen this cross and wondered what it stood for?

As a constant reminder of our vows, we wear daily the emblem of The Order: a silver pin/pendant with the inscription, “MAGNANIMETER CRUCEM SUSTINE” which broadly translated means “with heart, mind and spirit uphold and bear the cross”.

After a period of study and by reaffirmation of the promises made at Baptism and Confirmation, a Daughter pledges herself to prayer, service and evangelism, dedicated to the spread of Christ’s Kingdom and the strengthening of the spiritual life of our parish.

Through membership in the Order, you will: develop strength and discipline through prayer, be challenged through study and be part of a community with other fantastic women of St. Luke’s and other chapters around the world. We find the Order of the Daughters of the King to be a safe place in our very busy world where women of all ages can support each other in Christ’s love. We believe

I am but one,
But I am one

I cannot do everything,
But I can do something.

What I ought to do,
By the grace of God
I will do.

Lord,
What will you have me do?
