

OUTDOOR SEASON EXTENDED!

Green City Market is extending our farmers market season in Lincoln Park + West Loop!

Due to Covid-19 capacity restrictions, GCM's Indoor Market will not be running in the Peggy Notebaert Nature Museum this 2020-2021 winter season.

To keep serving our community, GCM's outdoor farmers markets will remain open through Saturday, November 21, and we will continue to offer home delivery and curbside pick-up through GCM Delivered all fall and winter long.
