

Labour market information | online workshop

Labour market information is a valuable job search tool, learn more about how to find and use this information.

This webinar provides a background on what labour market research is and how to use it to assist in the choosing of a career path.

In this workshop we will cover:

- how to find labour market information that will help them to make informed decisions
- using your Career Decision Making results to explore the labour market information in your field of interest
- exploring additional tools to help you find the right path

Tuesday, Mar. 23

Join Angela Wiggins at 11 a.m.

Paste the link below in your web browser to join: [https://georgiancollege.webex.com/
meet/angela.wiggins](https://georgiancollege.webex.com/meet/angela.wiggins)

Join by phone
1-416-915-6530

Access code: 646 282 046