Wing Commander Dr Kylie Hall

Guest Speaker, Somerville House Old Girl 1979

Wing Commander Dr Kylie Hall is a Military Anaesthetist with the Royal Australian Air Force. She is a specialist in Burns and Trauma anaesthesia and has served in Afghanistan, the Middle East, Ukraine and on multiple international Military aeromedical evacuations.

Initially a reservist anaesthetist juggling a busy private practice, she transferred to service through a pilot program reintroducing fulltime specialists into the military in 2012. She currently retains a small private practice in eye anaesthesia.

Kylie recently completed her fellowship in chronic pain medicine and was elected to the faculty board. She is a Senior Lecturer at UQ, and instructor for EMST, EMSB and MIMMS courses.

Kylie is married with three adult children and loves Scuba diving and Barre classes.
